

LET'S PARTY MAD LIB

You are invited to a _____ party for _____ (adjective) (proper noun)

this Friday night at 7:00 PM sharp. It's going to be so fun, and...it's a surprise!!! Please arrive on time and don't be _____. Make sure to wear your (adjective)

fanciest _____ and bring a _____ to share.
(plural noun) (noun)

There will be tons of _____ to eat, and we are planning to (plural noun)

_____ and _____ until the break of dawn. I heard (verb) (verb)

a rumor that _____ might even be there! Don't forget your (proper noun)

dancing _____ or you might just _____ on the (plural noun) (verb)

dance floor. If you like _____ music and games, this is the place to (adjective)

be. To RSVP, please send us a _____ so we know (adjective) (noun)

if you're coming or not. Seriously, though, be there or you are a _____!
(noun)

TYPES OF WORDS

A GUIDE FOR WORD-MAKERS

ADJECTIVE: a word that describes something else

Examples: brave, clumsy, loud, orange, goofy, clever, spicy, gigantic

NOUN: a person, place, or thing

Examples: wombat, doorbell, sock, pirate, trampoline, toilet, superhero

PLURAL NOUN: a noun that refers to more than one person, place, or thing

Examples: squirrels, monsters, popsicles, asteroids, pajamas, babies

PROPER NOUN: a name used for a specific person, place, or organization

Examples: Giannis Antetokounmpo, Taylor Swift, Australia, Jupiter, the Milwaukee Brewers

VERB: an action word

Examples: drool, sob, chuckle, flip, breakdance, bellow, scoot, dive